

The Museum of Natural Sciences

Scavenger Hunt

1. Look at T-Rex's teeth. Was the T-Rex an herbivore (plant-eater) or a carnivore (meat-eater)? _____
2. T-Rex lived _____ million years ago.
3. Can you guess how many meters long the Triceratops is? _____
4. Can you guess how the Triceratops got its name? _____
5. Check out the stone walls and benches in front of the T-Rex and the Triceratops. How many fossils can you find? _____
6. How many plates does the Stegosaurus have on its back? _____
7. How many spikes does Stegosaurus have on its tail? _____
8. Look at the Stegosaurus' teeth. Was the Stegosaurus an herbivore (plant-eater) or a carnivore (meat-eater)? _____
9. Find the panel that describes the two different kinds of dinosaur hips. HINT: look beside the Stegosaurus.

Can you identify the kind of dinosaurs by their hips?

- a. TYRANNOSAURUS _____
- b. STEGOSAURUS _____
- c. TRICERATOPS _____

10. How many starfish can you find in the Tropical Marine Tank? _____

11. Invertebrates have no bones to support their bodies; check out the snails.

What protects the snail's soft body? _____

12. Find the sea anemone and draw a sketch of it here:

13. How many Koi fish are there in the pond? _____

14. What colours do you see on the koi? _____

15. How many frogs can you find? _____

16. Find the Eryops skeleton. What group of animals does it belong to? _____

17. What does the ratsnake eat? _____

18. How many live birds can you find in the museum? _____

19. What kind of birds are they? _____

20. Check out the minerals in the case by the T-Rex. What is the big red mineral in the middle of the case called? _____

21. Find the other mineral display. HINT: Look down the hall past the elevator. What is the mineral that looks like gold cubes called? _____

22. What color is your favorite mineral? _____

23. Look across the hall for the display called ROCKS. There are three types of rocks: Sedimentary, Igneous and Metamorphic

a. Sandstone is an example of a _____ rock.

b. Granite is an example of an _____ rock.

c. Marble is an example of a _____ rock.

24. What kind of rocks come from outer space? _____

25. Draw a sketch of your favorite mineral in the museum here: