

Applications are invited from qualified individuals for a full-time, 18-month term, Lecturer position, specializing in applied microeconomics and applied econometrics, with the Department of Economics, College of Arts and Science. The successful candidate will teach undergraduate (and possibly graduate) courses in any fields of applied microeconomics and applied econometrics including introductory and intermediate microeconomics, quantitative methods, econometrics, labour economics, urban economics, and economics of public finance and taxation; and will undertake relevant administrative activities, including meetings and committee work.

This position is located in Saskatoon, Saskatchewan and teaching duties will be in person. The Department of Economics is dedicated to the principles of reconciliation, outreach, and policy relevant applied research. The Department has applied microeconomists with research focus in labor, education, development, environment and resource economics, and health, and we are seeking a candidate who can complement this focus in teaching and research.

The University of Saskatchewan's main campus is situated on Treaty 6 Territory and the Homeland of the Métis. The University of Saskatchewan is located in Saskatoon, Saskatchewan, a city with a diverse and thriving economic base, a vibrant arts community and a full range of leisure opportunities. The University has a reputation for excellence in teaching, research and scholarly activities and offers a full range of undergraduate, graduate, and professional programs to a student population of over 25,000.

The successful candidate will have a PhD (or be near completion) in Economics or related disciplines. We are seeking candidates who have research expertise in applied microeconomics and applied econometrics, and teaching experience at the undergraduate level, as evidenced by a teaching dossier. The ability or potential to teach graduate courses and engage in graduate student supervision would be an asset.

Salary bands for this position for the 2023-2024 academic year are as follows:

Lecturer: $83,150 to $123,458.

This position includes a comprehensive benefits package which includes a dental, health and extended vision care plan; pension plan, life insurance (compulsory and voluntary), academic long term disability, sick leave, travel insurance, death benefits, an employee assistance program, a professional expense allowance, and a flexible health and wellness spending program.

Interested candidates must submit, via email, a cover letter, detailed curriculum vitae, a research paper, teaching dossier (including student and peer evaluations if available), and should arrange three letters of reference sent to:

Nazmi Sari, PhD
Head, Department of Economics
9 Campus Drive
University of Saskatchewan
Saskatoon, SK S7N 5B1
Telephone: (306) 966-5216
Email: econ.search@usask.ca

Due to federal immigration requirements, we also ask candidates to indicate whether they are Canadian citizens, permanent residents, or are otherwise already authorized to work at this position for the duration of the appointment, with an explanation if this last category is indicated.

The Department will start reviewing the applications on October 16, 2023; however, applications will be accepted and evaluated until the position is filled. The anticipated start date is January 1, 2024.

The University is committed to employment equity, diversity, and inclusion, and are proud to support career opportunities for Indigenous peoples to reflect the community we serve. We are dedicated to recruiting individuals who will enrich our work and learning environments. All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however, in accordance with Canadian immigration requirements, Canadian citizens and permanent residents will be given priority. We are committed to providing accommodations to those with a disability or medical necessity. If you require an accommodation to participate in the recruitment process, please notify us and we will work together on the accommodation request. We continue to grow our partnerships with Indigenous communities across the province, nationally, and internationally and value the unique perspective that Indigenous employees provide to strengthening these relationships. Verification of Indigenous Membership/Citizenship at the University of Saskatchewan is led and determined by the deybwewin | taapwaywin | tapwewin: Indigenous Truth policy and Standing Committee in accordance with the processes developed to enact the policy. Successful candidates that assert Indigenous membership/citizenship will be asked to complete the verification process of Indigenous membership/citizenship with documentation. The University of Saskatchewan's main campus is situated on Treaty 6 Territory and the Homeland of the Métis. We pay our respects to the First Nations and Métis ancestors of this place and reaffirm our relationship with one another. Together, we are uplifting Indigenization to a place of prominence at the University of Saskatchewan.