

BIOL 479 -

Dr. Manar Angrini will be supervising literature research in neurobiology of behavior focusing on the following topics. The prerequisite(s) for these topics is/are BIOL 317 or /and BIOL 430.

- Drosophila, Caenorhabditis elegans and mice are 3 model organisms to study a neuropsychological disorder (such as Parkinson's disease, Alzheimer's disease, or drug addiction).
- Neurobiological mechanisms of stress in the memory processes.
- Sex hormones and memory enhancement.

Please contact manar.angrini@usask.ca if you have any interest and/or questions!