The College of Arts and Science invites applications from qualified individuals for a full-time one-year limited term faculty position in the area of Abstract Algebra in Mathematics and Statistics at the rank of Lecturer.

The successful candidate will be expected to teach six courses per year with an emphasis in Abstract Algebra in addition to foundational and service-oriented first, second, and third year undergraduate courses in Mathematics. Experience with teaching abstract algebra courses will be considered a strong asset.

The successful candidate may be expected to deliver courses in an online as well as on-site setting. When needed, the task of developing teaching materials for online delivery will be part of the duties. While the primary focus of these positions is on teaching, Lecturers are also expected to contribute to the broader goals and activities of the Department.

The Department offers undergraduate courses towards degrees in Applied Mathematics, Mathematics, Mathematical Physics, and Statistics, as well as several service-oriented courses for students in Commerce, the Life Sciences, Education, and Engineering. Department members are also engaged in research, interdisciplinary and international collaborations, curriculum improvement and development, community outreach and promotion of the Mathematical Sciences.

The College of Arts and Science offers a dynamic combination of programs in the fine arts, humanities, the social sciences, and the sciences. There are over 10,000 undergraduate and graduate students in the College and 312 faculty, including 10 Canada Research Chairs. The College emphasizes student and faculty research, scholarly and artistic work, interdisciplinary programs, community outreach and international opportunities.
