PART ONE

I. PURPOSE OF FACULTY COUNCIL

1. The Faculty Council of the College of Arts and Science (hereinafter referred to as the Faculty Council) shall exist for:
 - a) the determination of College policies, rules and procedures that govern fundamental matters of scholarship and discipline set out in Part One, Section II.2 of these Bylaws;
 - b) the participation and engagement of members of the Faculty Council in discussions of policies, plans and decisions by the College administration that directly affect those areas for which the Faculty Council has responsibility.

II. CONSTITUTIONAL POWERS AND DUTIES OF THE FACULTY COUNCIL

1. The Faculty Council of the College of Arts and Science is established under the authority of the University of Saskatchewan (hereinafter referred to as University) Council, whose powers and duties are in turn established by the University of Saskatchewan Act 1995. The powers and duties delegated by University Council to the Faculty Council of the College of Arts and Science are laid out in Part Three, Section V. 2. of the University Council Bylaws and Regulations.
2. The Faculty Council shall have responsibility for the following matters of scholarship and discipline:
 - a) To make recommendations to the University Council concerning the requirements for admission to programs offered by the college or school;
 - b) To establish and report to the University Council on the number of students who may be admitted to a college or program of study and to report to the university Council on the number of students admitted each year;
 - c) To make recommendations to the University Council concerning addition, deletion or modification of courses and programs of study, and concerning the requirements for successful completion of such programs;
 - d) To establish and publish rules and methods for the progression and graduation of students and for their suspension or requirement to withdraw permanently for failure to meet the requirements for progression;
 - e) Subject to the University Council's examination regulations, to establish and publish rules and standards with respect to the assessment and examination of students in courses and programs offered by the college or the school;
 - f) To make decisions concerning progression of students and concerning their suspension or requirement to withdraw, in accordance with the rules approved by the faculty council, and to hear appeals of such decisions;
 - g) To approve candidates for degrees, diplomas and certificates;
 - h) To approve candidates for scholarships, prizes, and other awards and honours;
 - i) To establish a mechanism for appointing hearing boards to hear allegations of academic misconduct as provided for under the University Council's regulations governing academic misconduct;
 - j) To consider appeals from students in accordance with the University Council's regulations governing student appeals in academic matters.

3. The Chair of the Faculty Council shall transmit to the University Council for consideration all matters of scholarship and discipline which belong to the care of the University Council or which by their nature concern another College.
4. The Faculty Council shall keep minutes of its meetings, which shall be made available to the University community.
5. The Faculty Council shall establish bylaws for the purpose of regulating the conduct of its meetings and proceedings, and shall amend those bylaws that pertain to its powers and duties.

III. MEMBERSHIP OF THE FACULTY COUNCIL

1. The membership of the Faculty Council of the College of Arts and Science is prescribed in Part Three, Section V. 1. B. of the University Council's Bylaws and Regulations. At the time of the last revision of these bylaws, the membership consisted of:

(a) Non-Voting Members:

- The President of the University
- The Provost and Vice-President Academic
- The Vice-president Research
- The Vice-president Finance and Resources
- The Vice-president University Relations

 - Two (2) representatives of the regular ASPA teaching employees
 - Ten (10) Arts and Science student representatives (full participation in meetings except when the discussion relates to individual students or faculty)
 - Two (2) graduate students supervised in Arts and Science (full participation in meetings except when the discussion relates to individual students or faculty)
 - One (1) postdoctoral fellow supervised in Arts and Science (full participation in meetings except when the discussion relates to individual students or faculty)
2. Deans outside the College and Directors of Schools may appoint a designate, in which case that individual shall be identified prior to the meeting of the Faculty Council that the designate is to attend.
 3. Sessional Lecturers, regular ASPA teaching employees, students and post-doctoral fellows shall be appointed before the first Faculty Council meeting of the academic year by a process determined by the Nominations Committee in collaboration with the respective bodies or groups.
 4. An ex officio member who is entitled under the bylaws to delegate his/her membership may designate an individual to serve on the Faculty Council with the same powers as the designator. Such designations will last for twelve (12) months and are subject to renewal. In the event that the individual is unable to complete the full term, another individual may be designated in his/her place. To initiate the designation, the ex officio member will inform the chair of the Faculty Council.
 5. Voting rights of St. Thomas More faculty, instructors and special lecturers are specific to the terms of the federation with the College of Arts and Science, and apply only to those academic matters set out in Part One, Section II. 2. of these Bylaws which affect B.A., B.Sc. or B.A.& Sc. programs in which STM offers courses.
 6. Voting rights of Biomedical Science department faculty apply only to those academic matters set out in Part One, Section II. 2. of these Bylaws which affect the B.Sc.(BMSC) degree programs offered by the Biomedical Science departments through the College of Arts and Science.

IV. PROCEDURES OF FACULTY COUNCIL

1. Quorum for Meetings

The quorum for meetings of the Faculty Council is thirty (30) faculty members from the College of Arts and Science.

2. The Duties of Chair and Vice-Chair

- (a) The Chair shall preside over all meetings of Faculty Council. In this respect, the Chair's duties are to preserve order and decorum and, subject to appeal, to decide all questions of order and other questions as provided in these Bylaws.
- (b) The Chair, in consultation with the Dean, shall prepare a draft agenda for each meeting of Faculty Council and shall present it for approval at the meeting.

- (c) The Chair shall ensure the maintenance of an archive of the proceedings of Faculty Council meetings including inter alia approved minutes. The Dean shall provide administrative support for this task.
- (d) The Chair shall be the spokesperson for Faculty Council. In this respect, the role of the Chair is to explain the decisions, activities and procedures of Faculty Council.
- (e) The Chair may seek the guidance and assistance of the Bylaws Committee with respect to matters of Faculty Council procedure.
- (f) The duties of the Chair shall be carried out by a Vice-Chair when, for any reason, the Chair is unavailable. The Chair of one of the Faculty Council's Standing Committees shall serve as Vice-Chair. When neither the Chair nor one of the Standing Committee Chairs is available, the meeting shall be deferred to another day. The Vice-Chair shall have all the powers and perform all the duties of the Chair. The Vice-Chair will preside at meetings in place of the Chair if the Chair declares a conflict of interest in any matter.
- (g) The Chair shall transmit to the University Council for consideration all matters of scholarship and discipline which belong to the care of the University Council or which from their nature concern another College or a School.

3. Election of the Chair

- (a) Thirty (30) days prior to the conclusion of the term of the current Chair of the Faculty Council, the Nominations Committee shall inform all members of the Faculty Council that nominations for the position of Chair are being requested and shall provide a nomination form for this purpose.
- (b) A Faculty Council member shall be nominated for the position of Chair when the nomination form referred to in (a) containing the consent of the nominee is endorsed by three (3) members of the Faculty Council and returned to the Nominations Committee on or before the date specified by the Committee. The nomination form will contain a brief description of the nominee stating the nominee's qualifications for the position of Chair of the Faculty Council.
- (c) Ten days prior to the date of the election, the Nominations Committee shall provide to all members of the Faculty Council a ballot setting out the names of the nominees and the brief description of each nominee referred to in (b). Information accompanying the ballot shall indicate that the ballot is to be returned to the Nominations Committee on or before the specified date.
- (d) The results of the balloting shall be reported by the Chair of the Nominations Committee to the next meeting of the Faculty Council. The Chair of the Nominations Committee shall rule on any election irregularities. The Chair's decision shall be final.
- (e) In the event that the two or more nominees with the most votes receive the same number of votes, the Chair of the Nominations Committee shall select the incoming Chair by lot.
- (f) In the event that no nominations are received by the deadline for nominations for Chair, a second call for nominations shall be sent. If the second call for nominations does not elicit a nomination, then the Nominations Committee shall nominate a member of the Faculty Council to serve as Chair for a one-year term, and a call for nominations for Chair will go out the following year.
- (g) The Chair shall normally hold office for a period of two (2) years, renewable for another term of two (2) years, unless removed by a vote of 2/3 of the members of the Faculty Council. A Chair shall be eligible for re-election to this position in the third year following a second term.

4. Council Meetings

- (a) The Faculty Council shall meet at least three (3) times per academic year, in the fall, winter and spring.
- (b) Notice of regular meetings of the Faculty Council shall be provided in writing to all members no less than thirty (30) days in advance of the meeting.
- (c) A Special Meeting of the Faculty Council may be held at any time upon the call of the Chair, or in the Chair's absence, by the Vice-Chair, or by a petition of seventy (70) voting members of the Faculty Council. Where a Special Meeting is called, the business to be transacted must be specified in the notice of the meeting. Special Meetings require written notice of not less than seven (7) days.
- (d) The agenda and any minutes from previous Faculty Council meetings to be considered for approval at the meeting shall be circulated electronically not less than seven (7) days prior to the date of the meeting.
- (e) Except as provided in (e), (f) and Part VI herein, a motion shall be preceded by an electronic notice of motion presented to the members of Faculty Council not less than seven (7) days prior to the date of the meeting at which the motion is to be considered. This applies only to a motion dealing with a substantive matter that requires consideration by members of Faculty Council prior to the meeting at which the motion is presented. The Chair shall determine whether a motion falls within this clause.
- (f) A recommendation to Faculty Council contained in a committee report is deemed to be a notice of motion if the report containing the recommendation is included with the agenda of the meeting at which the report is considered.
- (g) The convocation lists of degrees, certificates, honours, and distinctions and the recommendations of convocation awards made by the Academic Affairs Committee may be circulated at the meeting at which these items are considered.

5. Procedures and Voting

- (a) Meetings of the Faculty Council shall be presided over by the Chair, or in the absence of the Chair the designated Vice-Chair.
- (b) Meetings of the Faculty Council shall be open to all members of the University community, who may speak at the discretion of the Chair but who, unless they are members of the Faculty Council, are not entitled to vote.
- (c) Except as provided elsewhere in these Bylaws, all questions before the Faculty Council shall be decided by a simple majority of the votes of the members present.
- (d) The Chair shall not vote on a motion before the Faculty Council except in the case of a tie with the chair having a deciding vote.
- (e) Voting shall normally be done by a show of hands. A motion to require a vote by secret ballot on a noticed motion must be seconded and approved by a simple majority.
- (f) In matters requiring an urgent decision, and at the call of the Chair, a motion may be put to the members electronically.
- (g) Electronic approval of a motion by voting members of the Faculty Council will be deemed to have the same force and effect as a motion adopted by a vote of the members at a meeting duly conveyed, and will be recorded in the minutes of the next regular meeting of the Faculty Council.
- (h) Any member of the Faculty Council may have his/her vote recorded in the meeting minutes on request. At the call of any five (5) members, the number of members voting for or against a motion shall be recorded in the minutes.

- (i) Meetings of the Faculty Council and its committees shall be conducted in accordance with the rules of order contained in the 3rd edition of M. Kaye Kerr and Hubert W. King, Procedures for Meetings and Organizations, in cases where such rules are not covered in these Bylaws.

V. COMMITTEES OF FACULTY COUNCIL

1. Role and Responsibilities

- (a) The Faculty Council shall establish committees to facilitate its work, without jeopardizing Council's authority.
- (b) Subject to the approval of the University Council, the Faculty Council may delegate decision-making powers to its Standing Committees.

2. Composition

- (a) Committees shall be composed of individuals who are voting members of the Faculty Council, but may invite experts to meetings to provide advice and assistance. Such experts shall not have a committee vote, except for the expert members on the Indigenous Course Committee, as prescribed in its terms of reference.
- (b) The Chair of the Faculty Council shall serve as an ex officio member of all committees of the Faculty Council.
- (c)) The term of office for a faculty member serving on a standing committee of the Faculty Council is normally three (3) years, and one (1) year for Sessional Lecturers, regular ASPA teaching employees, undergraduate and graduate students and post-doctoral fellows.
- (d) The term of office of a chair of a standing committee is one (1) year, and may be renewed annually for up to two (2) additional years.
- (e) The term of office of a member of a standing committee shall begin on 1 July, except in the case of filling a vacancy; vacancies may be filled by the Nominations Committee, except where the vacancies occur on the Nominations Committee; these shall be filled by the Bylaws Committee. All vacancies shall be filled so as to meet the composition requirements of the standing committee, with the individual appointed serving until the end of the academic year. In all cases where vacancies are filled, the Nominations Committee shall forward the name of the new committee member to the next meeting of the Faculty Council.

3. Procedures

- (a) All questions before a standing committee shall be decided by a simple majority of the votes of those present. For the purposes of this document a simple majority is defined as fifty per cent plus one of the voting members, with the chair having a vote only in the case of a tie.
- (b) Committees may bring forward recommendations to the Faculty Council of their own accord, or they may be asked by the Faculty Council to bring forward such recommendations.
- (c) The Dean may seek the advice or assistance of a committee of the Faculty Council with respect to particular items of business. The advice and assistance shall not contradict or conflict with policies of the Faculty Council, and the committee shall report to the Faculty Council on the nature of the advice given.

- (d) Standing committees may create sub-committees, which may invite experts to meetings to assist them with their work; however, such individuals shall not have a vote.
- (e) Committees shall ensure that minutes are taken at meetings, which, with the exception of the Academic Affairs Committee, shall be made available to all members of the Faculty Council.

4. Election and Appointment of Committee Members

- (a) The Nominations Committee of Faculty Council shall nominate candidates to serve as members of committees of the Faculty Council, with the exception of the Nominations Committee, whose members shall be nominated by the Bylaws Committee. Unless otherwise prescribed in the terms of reference of these committees, or in these Bylaws, the chairs of all committees of the Faculty Council shall be elected by the committee members at the first committee meeting.
- (b) The Nominations Committee shall prepare a slate of candidates for the standing committees of the Faculty Council except the Nominations Committee. If an election is necessary, the Nominations Committee shall conduct a ballot and forward the results of the election to the Faculty Council for information. If an election is not necessary, the Nominations Committee shall forward the slate of candidates to the Faculty Council for approval.
- (c) The Faculty Council committees shall, where specified in these Bylaws, include members of the Biomedical Sciences departments of the College of Medicine, STM, the Sessional Lecturers and students who are members of the Faculty Council.
