Who are we?

The Greystone Singers are an audition mixed-voice choir open to all University of Saskatchewan students who love singing and enjoy learning challenging and varied repertoire including, but not limited to, traditional, classical, sacred, secular, folk songs, and spirituals in a variety of languages and styles.

What do we do?

The Greystones Singers perform three concerts annually while also participating in many local events and festivals. We place a high priority on collaborating with other vocal and instrumental ensembles, including the Saskatoon Symphony Orchestra, Saskatoon Jazz Orchestra, and the Saskatoon Chamber Singers. This year we will be performing at CARNEGIE HALL in New York City, touring a few cities in Saskatchewan and commissioning some new repertoire specifically for this choir.

When and where do we rehearse?

Every Tuesday and Thursday from 2:30pm – 3:50pm in Quance Theatre in the Education Building.
