Compulsory Workshops

During the program, there are scheduled French Immersion workshops for students. These are compulsory for all students. Every student will be registered for the Folkloric Dance Workshop and must be registered for 5 – 2hr workshops. Please note that these workshops group students according to interest and not according to their level of French proficiency.

Please read through the description of the workshops. This will help you decide before you go online to register. We do our best to offer enough spots, but it is first come, first serve. In the past, students have always obtained their first, second and/or third choice.

All students must register for 5 of the following 12 workshops. Please note that the safeTALK workshop is an optional 6th of 12 workshops.

1. VOLLEYBALL, BADMINTON, FLOOR HOCKEY, SOCCER taught by François Chateigner

François is an avid sportsman and a trained French language instructor. Currently, he is a coach for cross-country running and track & field. In his free time, he enjoys canoeing and cycling in all seasons.

In each of these workshops, you will learn the specific French terms and key phrases to encourage your classmates in team and competitive sports and actually play these sports.

Please bring: • suitable running shoes, sportswear for indoors and outdoors.

2. CINÉCLUB taught by Adda Besseghieur

Adda is keenly interested in all things “performing arts”. Netflix is an integral part of his leisure activities. Currently, Adda is teaching French at Vancouver Island University and the University of Saskatchewan. His teaching experience is vast & varied – beginner to superior levels, credit, non-credit, civil service, diplomats, youth to older adults, etc.

In these workshops, you will view the film and then be able to participate in the group discussion. Adda promises that all levels of French speakers will be able to participate.

Please bring: • your enthusiasm for film.

3. ÉCHECS taught by François Chateigner

François is a chess amateur who has not quite reached the “master” status. He has however mastered the construction of beautiful chessboards.

In these workshops, you will learn the French terms and key phrases for opening moves and game strategies to play the game of chess in French – échecs.

Please bring: • your enthusiasm for the game

4. Découvrez les EXOPLANÈTES taught by Erica Bird

Erica has a bachelor’s degree in Physics and Astronomy because of her fascination with everything “starry”. She has more recently focused her attention on drawing, painting and photography.

Exoplanets are planets orbiting stars outside our solar system. There are now 3,743 known exoplanets. And we keep finding more all the time. In this art workshop, we’ll create and illustrate exoplanets using chalk, pastel chalk and collage techniques. What color is the sky? Does it rain? Are there oceans, mountains, moons? How long is a day? Is there life on your planet? This workshop is suitable for those of all levels of experience in art and is offered to help students appreciate their tour of the Observatory and the reading of “Le Petit Prince”.

Please bring: • a paint shirt

5. THE WATER LABORATORY taught by Janelle Lavoie

Janelle has completed her Kinesiology Degree and will finish her Education Degree in December. She is a certified lifeguard/swim instructor so of course one of her favorite activities is swimming! She has taught swimming for 10 years for all ages and levels.

In these workshops, you will learn French terms and key phrases for swimming and recreational sports in the pool. No matter your skill level, come play some games, get some tips to improve your swimming strokes, or just enjoy some fun in the pool.

Please bring: • a swim suit, towel, flip flops, goggles

6. THE OPTIONAL 6th WORKSHOP: safeTALK taught by Jacqueline Hounjet

Jacqueline is a certified LivingWorks registered trainer, a registered psychologist and a French instructor with EXPLORE program.

safeTALK is a half-day alertness training that prepares anyone over the age of 15, regardless of prior experience or training, to become a suicide-alert helper. Most people with thoughts of suicide don't truly want to die, but are struggling with the pain in their lives. Through their words and actions, they invite help to stay alive. safeTALK-trained helpers can recognize these invitations and take action by connecting them with life-saving intervention resources, such as caregivers trained in ASIST.

In this workshop participants will learn to: notice and respond to situations where suicide thoughts might be present; recognize that invitations for help are often overlooked; move beyond the common tendency to miss, dismiss, and avoid suicide; apply the TALK steps (Tell, Ask, Listen, and KeepSafe); and, know community resources and how to connect someone with thoughts of suicide to them for further help

More information: <https://www.livingworks.net/programs/safetalk/>

Please note that your French competencies in speaking and listening comprehension will determine your ability to participate. Currently by choosing this 6th workshop, you are simply indicating your interest. Your status in this workshop will be determined after placement testing on May 6 & 7, 2017.

Non-Compulsory Activities

All students are invited and highly encouraged to participate in the following non-compulsory activities.

Conseil des étudiants – This is the student representative council, held once a week and led by Adda Besseghieur. Classmates elect you to this position during the first week. Each level has 2 representatives. This council is responsible for the organization of the final banquet - the speeches, the presentations, the talent sharing and the entertainment numbers.

Additional Optional Costs

In an effort to be very transparent about where there may be additional optional costs for you, listed below are some activities / possibilities that former students have asked for and obtained. This is to forewarn you so that most financial decisions can be made before you even arrive. Remember that these are not in any way compulsory; they are all of an optional nature and are simply offered to make your stay with more enjoyable.

Rental of Sleeping Bags / Rental of mats

There are approximately 20 sleeping bags and-or mats available for rent for the Banff Camping trip only. The cost of renting a sleeping bag = $30.00 the cost of renting a mat = $6.00. These are rented on a first come, first served basis. If possible, you should try to bring your own sleeping bag and mat. However, if this should prove impossible or inconvenient, please choose these items when registering online. They will be available to you for the Banff weekend excursion. Please note that it is highly recommended to have something between your sleeping bag and the floor of the tent that will cut the cold.

Special diets, meal supplements, pre-existing medical conditions

Unfortunately, only those persons with severe food allergies or health conditions that are considered a barrier to learning will receive reimbursements for the costs of supplemental foods. The Council of Ministers of Education, Canada (CMEC), will require a doctor's note specifying the medical condition. Once approval is granted, these students are also responsible to purchase these foods during the course of the program or to bring these with them, and to present receipts to Ms. Piché for reimbursement.

All vegetarians or vegans or persons who require special diets due to religious, cultural, athletic etc reasons will have to bear the costs of meal supplements themselves.

Bursary recipients are responsible for expenses related to pre-existing medical conditions and they should have insurance coverage before participating in the program.

Purchasing Copy Cards or Printing Credits

For your convenience, you may purchase copy cards or printing credits directly at the Language Centre's Library, Rm 350. $5.00 for 50 pages. In the past, our students have had very little need for either since all documents that they require for their classes are given to them in class. However, students may have need of these services for personal reasons.

Absence Authorizations

At the University of Saskatchewan Language Centre, permissions to be absent from the program are not given. As a condition of the bursary, students must be 100% available for the program at all times. Students can be absent up to a maximum of 10% (= 12.5 hours) of class time. We do not recognize doctor's notes. Our philosophy is that our program is based on mastery of language over a period of intensive study, particularly the speaking and listening components. Like when a person obtains a pilot's license, they are required to fly for a number of hours (absences do not count), our students have to be actually in class for at least 90% of the time; the reason for an absence does not ultimately matter. We have made a few exceptions in particular cases, but very rarely. Lates get docked one hour after 5 minutes. Students get warning letters as they accumulate absences and have to meet with the Program director. If a student exceeds 12.5 hours of absence, or if a sickness/malady continually prevents a student from attending class, activities, workshops or excursion, then this student will be asked to discontinue.

Travel Discounts with Via Rail

The Council of Ministers of Education, Canada (CMEC), Official Languages Sector has partnered with Via Rail to offer bursary recipients a discount on VIA Rail fares.

Participants must quote a code when reserving in order to receive the discount. Participants reserving on line must first create a profile (detailed instructions can be obtained directly from G.Piché), while those reserving by telephone at 1-888-VIA-RAIL should provide the code to the sales agent. It is very important that participants show their letter from CMEC including their full name and the discount code to the agent when picking up their tickets at the train station. Participants who cannot produce the letter will be required to pay full fare.

Discounts are applicable to regular fares only and tickets are refundable without charge. Reservations can also be changed (depending on availability on the alternate train).
