GLOBAL STUDIES

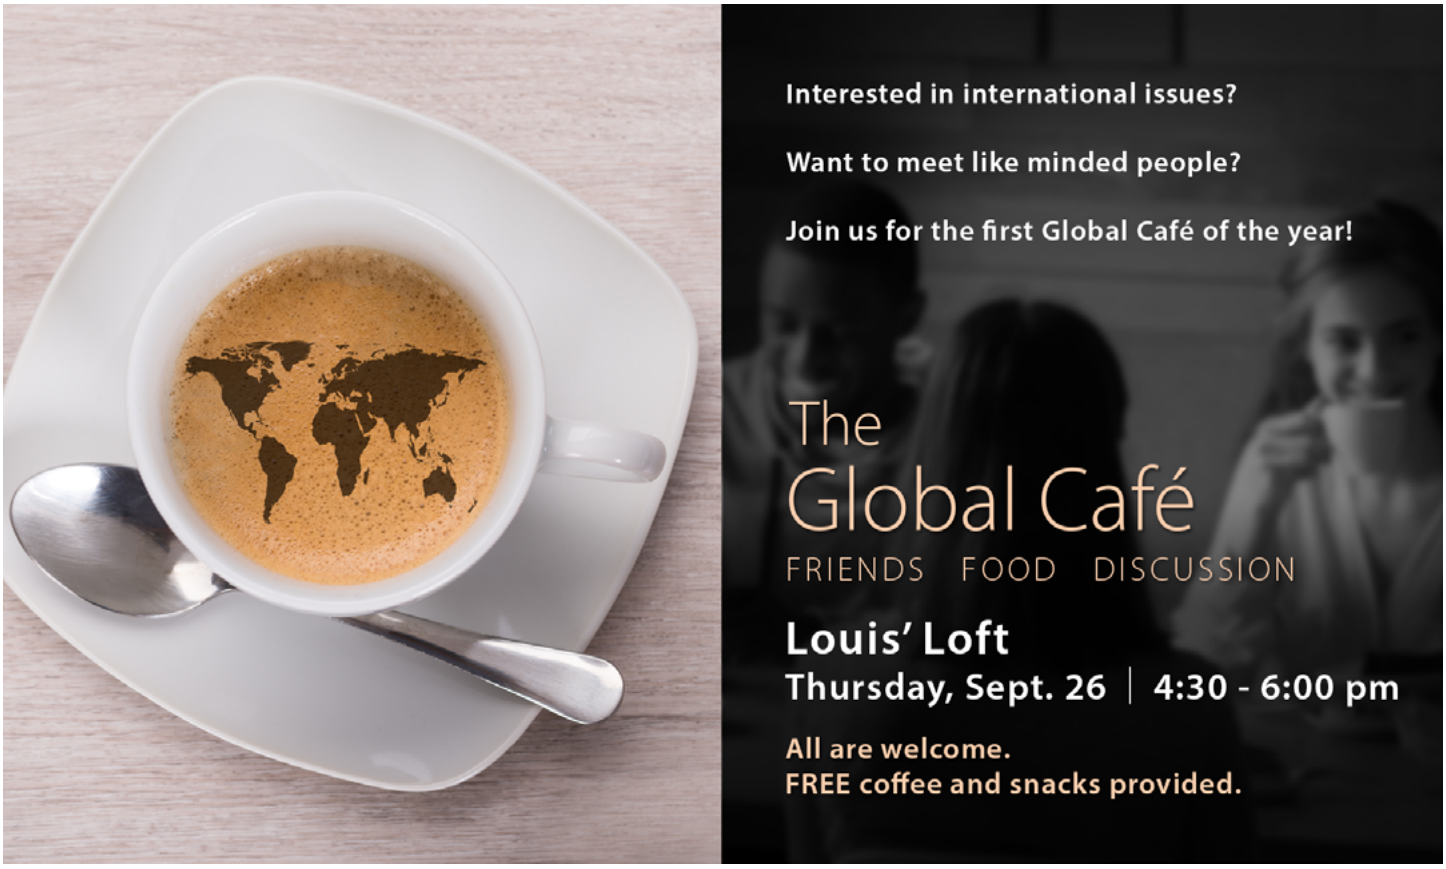
In this certificate program, students from a wide range of academic backgrounds have the opportunity to come together with a common focus – a commitment to developing an understanding of various facets of the global village, gaining international experience, and becoming more aware and active as global citizens.

INDIGENOUS GOVERNANCE AND POLITICS

This certificate program is designed for students who have an interest in developing a desire and deeper understanding of Indigenous political relationships.

POLITICS AND LAW

The purpose of this certificate program is to foster knowledge about the intersection of politics and law in the undergraduate learning experience and the learning environment at the University of Saskatchewan.



Important dates to note:

September 24
Last day to drop Fall Term classes with 75% tuition credit

September 27
University of Saskatchewan Open House

September 30
Tuition payment deadline for Fall Term
