Indigenous Justice and Criminology (IJC) Application for Admission
For Indigenous Students
Department of Sociology

The completed application must be returned by March 15, 2026, to:

Admissions Committee, IJC Program
Department of Sociology
University of Saskatchewan
Email: sociology@usask.ca
Website

If applicable, University of Saskatchewan student number: _____

NSID: _____

Name_____

Permanent Address_____

City/Town_____ Postal Code_____

E-Mail Address_____

Home Phone_____ Cell Phone_____

Please provide an address and telephone number where you may be reached from mid-April onward:

□ as above, OR _____

Telephone_____ Cell Phone_____

Response to the following questions, approved under Section 47 of the Saskatchewan Human Rights Code (SPA 48/88), is voluntary. Information obtained is confidential.

Do you consider yourself to be of Indigenous ancestry? □ Yes   □ No

If yes, please check one: □ Status (Registered) Indian   □ Métis
                                 □ Non-Status Indian   □   Inuit

Are you being funded?   □ Yes   □   No

If yes, to what extent? _____

By whom? _____

APPLICATION PROCEDURES
Please check and submit the following with your application:

     □ Completed Application Form

     □ Resume

     □ Most recent education institution transcript (if you are a current U of S student this is not required)

     □ Two letters of reference (Please try to include at least one academic reference)

     □ A letter of intent outlining your goals and objectives in completing the IJC Program

Incomplete applications will NOT be considered. Please ensure ALL information is included in your application.

PLEASE NOTE:
Students must be registered in the College of Arts and Science BEFORE they can be admitted into the IJC Program. Application for admission to the College of Arts and Science should be made from the following this link:
https://www.usask.ca/admission/index.php
Student Central at (306) 966-1212.

Date_____   Signature_____

Indigenous Justice and Criminology (IJC) was formerly known as Aboriginal Justice and Criminology (ABJAC).