

February 1, 2017

- ▶ The Minor or Recognition must be completed in conjunction with a major in a different subject or an interdisciplinary program, and must be completed at the time of graduation with an Arts and Science degree.
- ▶ The graduation standard for a Minor and the Recognition in a Language requires a cumulative weighted average of 62.5% including all courses taken in the subject of the minor and in the language of Recognition. There is no alternate standard.
- ▶ Residency Regulations apply to Minors and Recognition.
- ▶ For the most current information on Arts & Science programs, standards, policies and regulations refer to the online Course and Program Catalogue: <http://www.usask.ca/programs/colleges-schools/arts-science/index.php>.

MINORS

Minors are available in many disciplines on completion of 18 to 24 credit units as specified by the department. Not all disciplines offer minors. The College of Arts and Science offers minor programs in the following areas:

Anthropology	Geology
Applied Mathematics	Geomatics
Archaeology	German
Art – Studio Art	History
Astronomy	Indigenous Studies
Biology	Jewish and Christian Origins
Canadian Literature in English	Mathematics
Catholic Studies	Northern Studies
Chemistry	Philosophy
Classical, Mediaeval and Renaissance Studies	Physics
Classics	Political Studies
Computer Science	Psychology
Crime, Law, and Justice Studies	Religion and Culture
Critical Perspectives on Social Justice & the Common Good	Spanish
Digital Culture & New Media	Statistics
Economics	Toxicology
English	Ukrainian Studies
Entrepreneurship	Water Science
French	Women's and Gender Studies

RECOGNITION

Recognition in a Language is available in French, German, Spanish, or Ukrainian upon completion of 18 credit units as specified by the Department of Languages and Linguistics.